Sublime Solution Inc. announces its Launch into the Virtualization Marketplace as a Contemporary Value Added Reseller with a different market perspective.

Up and coming VAR to deliver innovative software solutions focused on the value and magnitude of customer relations

Manchester, NH., May 15, 2007 – Sublime Solution Inc. today announced the launch of Sublime Solution Incorporated. Sublime Solution Inc. is a growing Value Added Reseller that provides virtualization management solutions to organizations with virtualization initiatives or environments. As the technology industry changes and evolves, Sublime Solution Inc. will be a significant collaborator for companies determining their fundamental virtualization software needs.

Gartner Inc. has reported that virtualization will be the highest impact trend in the operations and infrastructure commerce in the upcoming years. When implementing virtualization strategies into an IT environment, data center managers and IT administrators need to have preeminent insight and confidence that the software they are applying is the best fit for their individual and unique environment.

“We pride ourselves on providing customers with an unsurpassed customer experience, said Kimberly Schuerhoff, Founder of Sublime Solution Inc. “Our team is passionate about helping customers understand the challenges with going virtual and offering them expertise on what solution best fits their business needs.”

Sublime has been successful in partnering with the best of breed technology companies who boast the top technology in each category: Disaster recovery for virtual environments, data migration and security, capacity monitoring and planning, chargeback and cost visibility, and storage virtualization. These relationships allow Sublime Solution Inc. to deliver customer solutions that are tailored specifically to meet their specific business needs.
